Andrews said the bill was drawn up with the assistance of the Corporation Counsel, thereby conveying the idea that it was in part conceived by and had the approval of Mr. Clark, which is expressly repudiated by Mr. Clark in so far as the idea is given that the bill emanated from him. Mr. Clark said this morning:

"Mr. Andrews brought the bill to me and told me it was a measure designed to carry out the plan of the Mayor's Advisory Committee. I looked over it as I would over contracts specifications or agreements in which the city is interested to see that the legal phraseology was correct, and I made certain necessary changes and a few amendments at Mr. Andrews's request. That is all I had to do with the bill.

"I have nothing to say about the expenditure of money. That is the Mayor's lookout. I do not know whether the Mawor approved the bill.

"You are a member of the Board of estimate, which has the control of expenditures. What is your opinion of Andrews's amendments?"
